

New England Air Museum Scavenger Hunt

Connecticut's Role in Aviation

Find the blue stars for hints to answer these questions. (CH is for Civil Aviation Hangar, MH is for Military Hangar.)

1. What is the oldest surviving United States aircraft from Connecticut in the New England Air Museum's collection? (CH)
2. Which is the oldest airplane built in Connecticut on display? (CH)
3. Name one of the world's largest manufacturers of airplane engines based in Connecticut. (CH)
4. What Connecticut-based technology, in addition to the airplane engine, has played a major role in the evolution of airplane design? (CH)
5. Which Connecticut resident contributed more to the development of aircraft than any other aviation pioneer? (CH)
6. Name three types of aircraft on display that this individual designed and produced. (CH)
7. Name the two helicopter manufacturers based in Connecticut. (CH and MH)
8. What was the purpose of the Excambian VS-44 Flying Boat? (CH)
9. Which famous World War II airplane was manufactured in Connecticut, and is now the official state airplane? (MH)
10. With what Connecticut Fighter Group did the P-47 Thunderbolt serve during World War II? (MH)
11. What was Bradley International Airport before it was a commercial airport? (Lobby)